Eastern Brook Trout Joint Venture Partnership

Signing the Eastern Brook Trout Joint Venture Partnership Memorandum of Understanding indicates an agreement to participate in the Eastern Brook Trout Joint Venture Partnership in accordance with conditions outlined in the Memorandum of Understanding.

The Agreement will become effective upon the date subscribed by the second signatory partner. Any individual signatory may end its participation by providing the other signatory partners no less than sixty (60) days written notice. After such an action, the MOU will no longer be in force for that signatory. Original signature pages for each partner shall be kept current and on file at a location determined by the Chairman of the Steering Committee.

This Agreement will terminate at the point when there are no longer two active signatories. The Agreement may be amended at any time by mutual agreement of the parties.

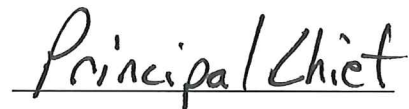

The liability of the partners to this MOU, to each other, and to third persons shall be governed by applicable laws and regulations now and hereafter enforced.

Nothing in this agreement shall be deemed, construed, or lead any person or entity to infer the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians has waived its sovereign immunity.

On behalf of the organization noted, the undersigned hereby agrees to participate as a member of the Eastern Brook Trout Joint Venture Partnership.
